

ashm

Developing a sustainable HIV, viral hepatitis & sexual health workforce

National Advanced HIV Nursing

Date: Friday 28 June 2024

Time: 9:30am – 1:30pm (AEST)

Virtual Attendance: Online – Teams

Description: Developed and presented by nurses, this interactive course will focus on the nurse's role in HIV care, centring on the long-term health and wellbeing of people living with HIV.

This education program will be conducted in two parts:

Part 1: Online Modules

Participants will complete the online modules before attending the facilitated workshop. The online modules will take up to 70 minutes to complete and will be assumed knowledge in the facilitated workshop.

Part 2: Online Facilitated Workshop

The facilitated component will comprise of a 4-hour online interactive workshop consisting of presentations, polls, and case-study group discussions.

Target Audience: Nurses experienced in the care of people living with HIV.

Learning Outcomes:

- Describe the common co-morbidities associated with living longer with HIV and potential risk factors.
- Discuss routine screening assessments and the interpretation of these assessments.
- Identify nursing interventions for promoting treatment adherence.
- Identify a shared care plan for patients living with HIV
- Outline issues that affect the wellbeing and quality of life of people living with HIV.

Click to register

For further details or assistance contact:

M: 0431 320 429

E: education@ashm.org.au

This activity is endorsed by the Australian College of Nurse Practitioners (ACNP) for 5 CPD hours.

This activity is pending endorsement by ACN.

This course received funding from the Australian Government Department of Health.