

The Deadly Sex Congress Forum

2024 Meanjin/Brisbane
9th - 10th October

Join our annual forum for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander sexual health workers and practitioners from across Queensland to update your knowledge, build workforce capacity, and share stories.

The Deadly Sex Congress includes updates on current and emerging issues in blood-borne viruses (BBVs) and sexually transmitted infections (STIs), covering topics such as: hepatitis C, HIV, syphilis, harm reduction, contact tracing, men's and women's health, healthy relationships, sexuality and gender diversity, and resource development.

Registration: Free

Accommodation: Up to 2 nights free (inclusive of breakfast and lunch plus the Deadly Sex Congress Dinner). Travel is not included.

Where: Pullmans King George Square, Meanjin/Brisbane, QLD

When: 9th - 10th October 2024

To register, scan the QR code or visit the website here.

