

Deadly Sex Congress 2025

Gimuy/Cairns | 22nd - 23rd October

Join our annual forum for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander sexual health workers and practitioners from across Queensland to update your knowledge, build workforce capacity, and share stories.

The Deadly Sex Congress includes updates on current and emerging issues in blood-borne viruses (BBVs) and sexually transmitted infections (STIs), covering topics such as: hepatitis C, HIV, syphilis, harm reduction, contact tracing, men's and women's health, healthy relationships, sexuality and gender diversity, and resource development.

Registration: Free

Where: Crystalbrook Bailey, Gimuy/Cairns

When: Wednesday, 22 October 2025 – Thursday, 23 October 2025

Event program

Wednesday: 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Wednesday Dinner: 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM (optional)

Thursday: 9:30 AM – 4:30 PM

To register, scan the QR code or visit the website here.

