

2026 Queensland Prison Forum

In-Person Event

Date: Friday, 12 June 2026

Time: 8:30am - 5:00pm (AEST)
Registrations from 8:00am

Location: Rydges South Bank Brisbane

Suitable for: Queensland Health staff, Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Health Workers, and those who provide in-reach or transitions services.

The Forum brings together health professionals working across the Queensland Prison space. The focus for 2026 is on incorporating opiate dependence treatment (ODT) as a tool for reducing harm and the spread of hepatitis C (HCV), and how ODT could influence our efforts towards HCV elimination. The Forum will continue to consider the broader system-level barriers and the implications on blood borne virus (BBV) management within the corrections environment.

This event is free to attend and fully catered!

Scholarships

A limited number of scholarships are available to help support representation of correctional centres throughout QLD, and we encourage those outside of Brisbane to apply.

Includes 1 night of accommodation, return flights, and/or fuel reimbursement. See our website for more details!

Featured speakers

To be announced with the program.

This activity may be suitable for self-claiming 8.5 CPD hours with your professional body. A statement of attendance will be provided for full attendees.
